INTRODUCING OUR SPEAKERS. . .

Dr. Robert M. Corrigan

Dr. Corrigan has been active in urban and industrial pest management for over 37 years and is the president of RMC Pest Management Consulting, a company that provides training and consulting services to the pest control and food industry. Prior to starting his own consulting firm, Dr. Corrigan was a member of Purdue University's Entomology Department for 15 years as a teacher and researcher in urban and industrial pest management. Bobby holds an A.A.S. degree in pest control; a Bachelor's in urban and industrial entomology from Purdue; and a Master's and Ph.D. in rodent and vertebrate pest management, also from Purdue.

Jeff Tucker

Jeff Tucker B.C.E., president of Entomology Associates, Inc., Houston, Texas is a graduate of Texas A&M University with a Bachelor of Science degree in entomology. He attended graduate school at the University of Illinois where he received staff appointment as a research associate in the department of entomology. From 1975-1981, Tucker served as manager of technical services for a Houston, Texas pest control company. In 1981, he established Entomology Associates, an independent consulting service to the structural pest management industry. His firm specializes in urban pest management consulting with emphasis in the areas of technical services, training, product testing and development, litigation support, wood-destroying organism inspections, ant and spider management, public health pest management and development and auditing of pest management programs for food-handling, health-care and other facilities.

Brian Sundnas

Mr. Brian Sundnas is an entomologist and technical specialist with Rockwell Labs Ltd. Prior to working with Rockwell, he was the owner-operator of a pest management company and provided consulting services to the pest management industry. He has a BS in entomology from Texas A&M.

Greg Jach

Mr. Greg Jach is the owner-operator of the Environmental Service Company. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. As a Registered Sanitarian he is currently the Environmental Health Specialist for the City of Glendale. He retired from the City of Milwaukee as their Vector and Nuisance Control Manager for the Health Department and the Department of Neighborhood Services. Earlier in his career he served as the Supervisor of the Health Department's Training and Special Services Division. As a member of the faculty of the Milwaukee Area Technical College he was instrumental in starting the Environmental Health Technology Program.

Special thanks to:

City of Milwaukee, City of Wauwatosa, and City of West Allis Health Departments, Milwaukee Dept. of Neighborhood Services, Waukesha Co. Dept. of Env. Services, and Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection for their assistance in planning this program.

GENERAL INFORMATION

OUR GOAL: We thank you for your interest in our seminar and are certain you will find our program beneficial--our 18th Annual Sanitation & Pest Management Seminar. Rodent expert Dr. Robert Corrigan will be joining us once again to provide his usual rodent updates. You will learn about a new treatment for house flies in areas where never before possible. You will also learn about proper sanitation and bioremediation techniques to control small flies. Another frequently requested topic is roaches, so we've arranged for the latest on that. Finally, you will hear an actual "case study" on proactive pest prevention through construction and building design.

RETURNING THIS YEAR--we will again feature our "insect identification display" to challenge your insect knowledge; a display of products for you to inspect; and a sampling of numerous reference/resource materials that are available (along with website information and order forms).

REGISTRATION: Pre-registration is required. Please use the form attached and return with remittance by Thursday, March 27, 2008. For further information, directions, etc., contact Cheryl at (262) 797-4160.

FEE:

$60.00 per person

Take advantage of our "Early Bird" Registration and save $5.00 per person by sending registration & payment before March 1. (Early registration fee is $55.00 per person).

Due to the special requirements and training materials needed for this "Hands-on Workshop," enrollment is limited. Cancellations received in writing by March 13, 2008 will be honored.

FEES INCLUDE: Registration includes admittance to all training sessions, instructional materials, breaks and lunch.

LOCATION: AMERICAN SERB HALL

The seminar will be held at American Serb Hall, 5101 W. Oklahoma Ave., Milwaukee, WI. (Easily accessible from the I-894 Bypass--exit at 60th Street, proceed north 2.5 miles to Oklahoma Ave., then east to 51st Street. Ample parking is available, enter through West Doors).
